

JACOPO DETTONI

BUSINESS EDITOR

Career objective

My ultimate career objective is to work with the best media organisations to produce actionable insights into the ever changing world economy.

ABOUT ME

I'm a driven professional committed to editorial excellence. As a leader, I guide, inspire and mentor my reports. As an editor, I stick to four cardinal points: relevance, accuracy, timeliness and engagement.

EXPERIENCE

2020–present | Editor, fDi Intelligence, Financial Times

2016–2020 | Deputy editor, fDi Intelligence, Financial Times

2013–2015 | Freelance correspondent for FT.com, Nikkei Asia, Eurasianet based in Almaty, Kazakhstan.

2012–2013 | Lead reporter at BusinessNewsAmericas based in Santiago, Chile.

2007–2009 | Junior financial reporter at Finanza&Mercati based in Milan, Italy.

SKILLS

Team leadership/Mentoring
Editing
Business reporting
Data visualisations
Photography
Audio and video production

EDUCATION

2000 – 2005 | Master degree in finance, Catholic University of Milan, 104/110

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Spanish: professional proficiency
Italian: professional proficiency
Portuguese: elementary proficiency
Russian: elementary proficiency

INTERESTS

Photography / History / Literature / Volunteering / Sports